Recommended Campgrounds in the Ardeche

Two vacations we have spent thus far at LUDO Camping in Lussas, near Aubenas (Ardèche). The first time was in August –it was very busy but still very cosy – the second time in September.

To our astonishment even then there were a lot of people camping, mostly senior citizens, like us.

The campsite exists since 1990 and is run by a Dutchman and his crew. The domain is beautifully landscaped, partially in terraces: the lower part is generously shaded by different species of trees, the upper part is younger. The pitches are well defined and measure 110 till 140 m²; all are easy to reach by caravan or mobile home.

They’ve got a heated swimming pool equipped with whatever one might wish, and modern, well kept sanitary facilities.

A lot of entertainment and activities are offered for both young and old and the region just invites you to be explored.

The price is OK as well.

Reservation recommended in high season.
